Rev. Stewart Robinson:—

Dear Brother:—

We were much blessed when reading in the Toronto Globe a brief report of your sermon on Sunday night at the Metropolitan Church. Many who heard it will never forget it, I am sure, and whenever they recall it, it will do them good.

Last night I had a dream. Dreams are queer. Frequently I dream that I am called to preach or lead a meeting. Generally in such cases I come to the appointed hour, wholly unprepared and have to scurry about mentally to find a text and a theme. It was so in last night's dream but at length a text came to me followed by a wondrous train of thought which greatly blessed me. "They which follow the Lamb whither so ever He goeth." I was ignorant of the context and did not know where to find it but thought it was in Revelation. The "Lamb" stands for sacrifice. What an impression sermon you would preach from such a text! (Rev. 14:4)

Your visit was greatly enjoyed. With more zest than ever we shall "listen in" to Lockport on Sunday morning.

May the Master richly bless you in your glorious ministry.

Gratefully Yours,
Willard F. Perrin

Dentonia Park, Toronto, Dec. 6 1926

Mrs. Perrin joins me in all good wishes. Have just learned of the coming of your baby daughter. Congratulations! Hope mother and babe are doing well!

Rev. Stewart M. Robinson,

Lockport, New York.

Dear Mr. Robinson;

We would extend our congratulations to you folks in your recent happiness, the birth of another son. I just happened to be chatting with your father in his study when your call came through. It was certainly good news for them. We hope that both are getting along nicely.

I received the returned check in your letter a few days ago. I am very sorry that you returned it. I appreciated your willingness to help a brother pastor. I assure you that it did help me at that time. But our roads are not good here and it is a strenuous task to drive over them, deliver a sermon, and then drive eight miles for lunch. However I have followed your suggestion and destroyed the check. I wish to thank you again for this help, and hope that I may in some way have opportunity of returning the favor of last August.

We appreciate your thinking of us in regard to that coming vacancy in Lockport. We have a few more things that we would like to do in West Delhi, and had hoped that we could stay three or four years in our first charge, and it may be possible. We are not overly anxious to make a change just now; but would appreciate a little more definite information about the church mentioned.

Your mother knows our situation and kindly offered to mention this to you. For the time being we are well satisfied with this settlement, and so would not be interested in a change unless it was very promising. We wish for your mother a safe journey, and for you all best things of the approaching season.

Very sincerely,

Delhi, New York.

Rev. W. J. Hannum,
Delhi, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Hannum:

I enjoyed your letter very much and thank you for the congratulations. It was odd that you happened to be talking to Father in the house at the time I called him up. I do not know whether Calvary Presbyterian Church
It is a rather small church in numbers, but I think has a future and just now has finished a very nice equipment which they have lacked hitherto. The church is fairly old and well established, and has a very consecrated membership.

Some of us have been thinking about the possibility of linking up the work at Calvary with the work here in our church and possibly that would be the most interesting feature if we could work it out. Without committing yourself at all, I believe you might arrange to come here for a Sunday when we could find a date and look the whole proposition over.

With all good wishes to you and Mrs. Hannum from all of us, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

December 13th, 1926.

My dear Dr. Perrin:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of December 6th. It was very good of you to write me. I certainly did have a most enjoyable time with you all at Toronto over Sunday and gained much more than I could possibly have contributed.

I reached home in plenty of time to enjoy the excitement which we had here last Tuesday upon the arrival of a fine son, the third child in the family and a lusty boy of more than nine pounds in weight and a good many inches of length with a wisp of red hair and blue eyes and I am afraid somewhat of a temper. Neither his mother nor I can decide where that comes from. It must be from some ancient ancestor. The kind interest of you friends in Toronto was most keenly appreciated.

The delightful visit which I had with you were among the choice bits of my most delightful time at Dentonia Park.

Your suggestion as to a sermon was most happy. You may get it back some day over the radio. Please don't tell on me if you do. The Old Testament tells us that, "God reveals His secrets in the night watches when deep sleep holdeth the land".

With all kinds of good wishes and greetings to all there with you, I am,

Most sincerely yours,

December 23rd, 1926.

Dear Mrs. Glienke:

We are in receipt of your letter of December 21st and thank you very much for your generous enclosure. I am very happy that you are able to worship with us on Sunday over the radio.

Again thanking you and with all good wishes, I am,

PIKEVILLE, KENTUCKY

Rev. S. M. Robinson,
Lockport, New York.

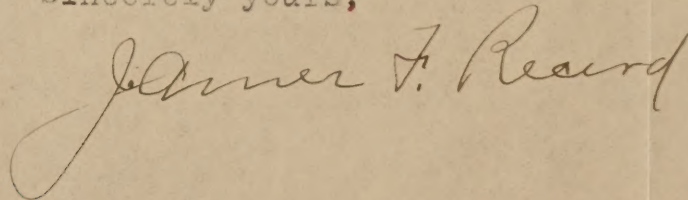

My dear Mr. Robinson:

Congratulations on the fine boy so recently come to your home. Children in the home are always a great source of comfort. Ours, of course, are all grown but we had them all at home with us Christmas and with them our only grandchild, a little girl two years old. Although all of them are grown and two married, they are still a great comfort to us.

I have just had a letter from Dr. Cherry of Harrisburg, the classmate of whom I wrote you saying that we had invited him to conduct a series of meetings this year. He writes me that he is leaving for a trip through the Orient on January 6 and it is impossible for him to come to us. I had written Dr. Hillis saying that if Dr. Cherry could not come I would be very much pleased to have you. A letter from him a day or two ago says that he has already written to you. I sincerely hope that you can come to us for ten days.

Wishing for you and yours a happy and prosperous New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

My dear Dr. Record:

I am in receipt this morning of a letter from Dr. Lewis E. Hillis of New York asking me in the name of the Joint Committee On College Visitation to go to Pikeville the last week of February and the first of March. Needless to say I am very happy to receive this invitation. It was very good of you to suggest my name and I shall enjoy coming to the very greatest degree.

So far as I can see now that particular week fits in very well with our own local church plan. But I would like to have from you a suggestion as to precisely the day you wish me to come, just how long you would like to have me stay, and something of the general nature of the work that is done at Pikeville on similar occasions.

With this information at hand I can begin now to prepare to do my best to make the meeting an inspiration and help to the boys and girls at Pikeville. From now on I will be looking forward with the keenest anticipation to renewing the acquaintance which was made last spring under such happy auspices.

With the very kindest regards to each and all of the good friends there in which Mrs. Robinson most heartily joins me, I am,

Very sincerely yours,
